Reading and understanding our different terms of use is essential to allow the visitors to have a safe and sound use of www.pharmapar.ca ("the Website") operated by Pharmapar Inc. ("Pharmapar"). As a matter of fact, there are several rules Internet users have to abide by in order to allow everyone to fully enjoy all the services and resources provided on our Website.

PRIVACY POLICY

Pharmapar is concerned to respect personal data confidentiality and to commit itself to protect and use it only for the purpose it was collected for. Our policy aims at informing you on our practice in terms of confidentiality. Not only do we intend to inform you on how your personal data will be collected, but also how it will be stored and used.

SCOPE AND IMPLEMENTATION

Our policy applies to every personal data collected from www.pharmapar.ca Website, but also within the framework of promotional activities carried out by Pharmapar in Canada. The policy falls under the scope prescribed by Québec law; the Act Respecting the Protection of Personal Information in the Private Sector, as well as every legal provision and requirements.

PERSONAL DATA WE COLLECT AND THE REASON WHY WE DO SO

Pharmapar can collect a few personal data from our Website users, in particular when the latter fill information requests, subscribe to the newsletter, create a personal account or place online orders. Required collected data is essentially names, mailing addresses, phones numbers and email addresses.

That information will be especially used to send our newsletter, to address questions asked and deal with online orders placed by users. The information may also be used to improve our Website content, for marketing studies or in order to design, improve, market products and services or to provide relevant information. Within that framework, information provided by users may be shared with Pharmapar employees.

ELECTRONIC DATA

Pharmapar can also collect data that is not of personal nature, among which the web browser you are using, the computer configuration used or the domain name of the site from which you followed a link to our Website. Moreover, when a user visits the Website, Pharmapar may send some information on the user's computer under the form of a cookie or similar file. Cookies enable Pharmapar to keep some information about the way the site is used, including date of the most recent visit, browsed pages and downloaded files. Cookies also allow Pharmapar to adjust the Website so it will better respond to users' interests and preferences.

Pharmapar doesn't not mix information obtained from cookies with personal data.

Most of Web browsers allow to delete cookies from computers hard drives, block them or get a message before their implementation.

Please refer to your web browser's instructions to learn more about these functions. If you refuse cookies on your computer, you will still be able to access the Website but your browsing may be affected and it is possible that you may not be able to fully enjoy some services requiring registration.

HOW YOUR PERSONAL DATA ARE USED, STORED AND SHARED

Pharmapar only uses collected data for the purpose they were meant for. When registering to receive the newsletter, creating an account or placing an order online, users consent to the use and disclosure of their personal data for the purpose described in the hereby policy.

Pharmapar keeps every collected personal data for a reasonable amount of time, whether until completion of the established target or according to the timeframe prescribed by law, whichever time period is the longest.

Once the established target is reached and personal data becomes obsolete or if the user asks Pharmapar to get rid of it, Pharmapar deletes it in a way to ensure protection against unauthorized access or sharing.

Pharmapar does not disclose users' personal data to anyone external to Pharmapar without the expressed consent from the user, with exception to:

- Any entity being part of Pharmapar group or linked to Pharmapar;
- Goods and services providers, whether an organization or an individual, asked to perform certain tasks for Pharmapar (i.e. data processing and electronic payment, document processing, etc.). Pharmapar implements the relevant measures, by means of contract or other form, to make sure that third parties are processing personal data only to provide these goods or services to Pharmapar and that they offer a level of personal data protection similar to what Pharmapar does for the protection of the personal data in its possession;
- Any entity resulting from an amalgamation or administration change in Pharmapar, in whole or in part, and only if parties signed an agreement according to which data collection, use and sharing will be limited to the goals of the transaction;
- Any public authority, when required by the law.

Pharmapar does not share users' personal data with promotional partners unless users agreed on sharing their data with them.

SECURITY

Every data is stored on highly secured servers, which protect access to information from unauthorized or malicious individuals. Pharmapar also protects personal data disclosed to third parties in compliance with the hereby policy in order to protect its privacy and the purpose for which they were collected. Only individuals who need to access the information within the framework of their activity (employees or commissioned agent) will be granted to do so.
